Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to us. This privacy policy describes how your information is collected, used, and stored when using this application.

Information Collected

Our application does not automatically collect personal information. All data entered in the application is stored locally on your device and is not shared with third parties.

Use of Data

The data you enter in the application is used only for its functionalities and is stored locally on your device. We do not send your data to any external server.

Data Storage

The stored data remains on your device and can be deleted at any time through the app interface. We do not keep copies of your data and do not access it remotely.

Security

We make every effort to ensure the security of your information. However, we cannot guarantee full protection of your data in the event of loss or unauthorized access to your device.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

This privacy policy may be updated periodically. We recommend checking this page regularly to stay informed about any changes.
